

Bergen-Berlin-Behavioral-Economics Workshop Program 2 April 2025

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Spandauer Str.1, room 125

9:00-10:30 Session 1, Chair Dirk Engelmann

9:00-9:30 Yiming Liu (HU/WZB): Dreaming Rich: How Inequality Sustains Itself through Motivated Overconfidence

9:30-10:00 Marlis Schneider (NHH): Thinking with Their Hearts?! Motivated Belief Updating by Parents

10:00-10:30 Lisa Bruttel (Potsdam): Communication and Collusion in Oligopoly Experiments: A Meta-Study using Machine Learning

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Session 2, Chair Bertil Tungodden

11:00-11:30 Anna Hochleitner (NHH): How Tinted Are Your Glasses? Gender Views in Job References

11:30-12:00 Ethan O'Leary (NHH): The Cultural Trust Gap: Discriminative Trust Across England's North-South Divide

12:00-12:30 Lea Heursen (HU): Beliefs and Preferences in Coordinated Discrimination

12:30-12:45 General Discussion

12:45-13:30 Lunch Break

13:30-15:00 Session 3, Chair Dorothea Kübler

13:30-14:00 Roberto Caputo (NHH): Fairness and Contribution Beliefs

14:00-14:30 Marco Runkel (TU): Homo Oeconomicus as the Homo Moralistic Party Pooper: Heterogeneous Morality in Public Good Games

14:30-15:00 Fidel Petros (WZB): An Easy Mechanism to Avoid Wasteful Spending with Expiring Budgets? The Case of Resources Pooling

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-17:00 Session 4, Chair Alexander Cappelen

15:30-16:00 Michel Tolksdorf (TU): Between AI, You and Me: Do We Really Dislike Delegating Decisions to AI?

16:00-16:30 Morten Nyborg Støstad (NHH): Majority in 40 Countries Support Unprecedented Coordinated Billionaire Tax Discussed by G20?

16:30-17:00 Georg Weizsäcker (HU): Challenging the Pareto Principle in Risky Social Situations

17:00-17:15 General Discussion

18:30 Dinner Dieselhaus, Forum an der Museumsinsel 10, 10117 Berlin